Community Yule Party Slated In Plaza Saturday

Santa Claus Will Distribute Gifts to All Children

The stage is set for the big annual Community Christmas Party to be held on the plaza under the giant Yule tree Saturday evening.

Howard Newsham, chairman of the publicity committee, reports a program has been arranged for both youngsters and oldsters, beginning with motion pictures for the children in Capitol Hall at 3:30 o'clock.

This feature will be followed by selections by the Tahoe-Truckee High School choral group and community singing at 4:45.

Santa Claus will arrive at 5 p.m. escorted by Lloyd Van Sickle in a dog-drawn sled. This will be the occasion for the distribution of gifts to the pre-school and elementary school children.

Immediately following distribution of gifts and eats, soft drinks and candy, the awarding of the chamber of commerce prizes for the best decorated business window and residence will be handled by Reginald Smart, president of the chamber of commerce, which is cooperating with other local organizations in presenting the program. The affair is sponsored by the Eagles Women's Auxiliary and Mrs. Ruth Hesse is the general chairman of arrangements.

Today was the final day for having decorations ready for the chamber of commerce judges. As previously announced, an award of $50 local merchandise order for first prize and $25 for second prize will be given the commercial winner while similar orders for $25 and $10 will be given the best decorated residences.

An additional prize of a free 10-minute telephone call to any place in the United States is being offered by Howard Newsham, manager of the Pacific Telephone Company.

All contestants must have their displays in view of the highway. The judges will not be announced publicly.

Summit Water Bond Election Loses By One

SODA SPRINGS— Hopes of floating an $85,000 bond issue to provide for installation of a domestic water supply for the Donner Summit Public Utility District faded Tuesday when the proposition lost by one vote at a special district election.

The count was 30 to 16 and a two-thirds vote was required for passage.

While the decision leaves the district in a rather embarrassing financial condition, officers believe that current obligations may be paid off through an increase in the tax rate next year.

In the meantime, the water supply problem looms as an unsolved question.

County Plows To Continue Work Through March

Use of All Available Funds Is Agreed to At Board Meet

By utilizing every available dollar and stretching it as far as possible, the snow removal program on county roads in this area can be continued through April 1.

This assurance was given following a meeting of the Nevada County board of supervisors Tuesday when the matter was made a special order of business. Chairman H. G. Loehr of Truckee presented the results of his lengthy study of the financial problem involved, and received unanimous support of the other members. These details were worked out by Loehr and Purchasing Agent W. N. McCormack prior to the session.

Although the established budgeted road fund is near exhaustion, it was brought out that by using all justice court fees and fines, taking advantage of every known source of extra revenue, including state gas tax refunds, en lieu tax and a variety of lesser incomes, the county can eke by until April 1, at which time there will probably be a definite shutdown of all road projects, including snow removal, repairs and replacements, Loehr said.

Picture Brightens

Thus the picture which last week appeared dark indeed now takes on a more cheerful aspect and the program will be continued throughout the winter without interruption, the chairman predicts.

Complete harmony marked the session Tuesday, Loehr reported, with all members of the present board and the two members-elect, who will replace C. J. Tobiassen and Frank Rowe after the first of the year, agreeing to the program suggested by the chairman.

It had been previously announced that after January 1 the road fund would be completely exhausted and that work would stop unless some unforeseen develop occurred.

This will be followed on the same day and location by a pre-Christmas party for the Fly Up Group between the hours of 3 and 5 p.m. Mesdames George Kaspian, Nat Quilici, I. Kohl, Lawrence Frey, Christenson will help to make the occasion a festive one.

Sun Beams

by Walter M. Barrett

Hats off this week to the industrious members of the 20-30 Club of Truckee for their efforts in decorating the town for the holiday season. Occasionally, with banks of dirty snow along the sidewalks and an accumulation of candy bar wrappers, empty cigarette packages and other debris drifting about with the wind, we get a feeling that strangers may think of us as an apathetic little community, listless and shoddy. Then the state crews move in to cart away the snow, Constable Dolley and his crew ply brooms along the streets and the 20-30 spends hours installing trees and strings of Christmas lights; merchants fill their windows with holiday merchandise and attractive displays, and we are again proud of our town and rather wish that the strangers could see us now. Regardless of size, few towns or cities offer a better appearance or a more seasonal atmosphere than Truckee and we laud the organizations and progressive merchants who make this possible.

Next Thursday it will be too late to propose what we have so consistently suggested in the past —take your shopping list to your local stores and take advantage of the fine assortment of gift items being offered. You have only until next Wednesday—five short shopping days—to complete your purchases. Look over the ads today and get an idea for that last minute gift purchase. You will be pleased by what you find.

PATROL OFFICE WITHOUT CLERK

The resignation of Jack Tuohy as clerk of the California Highway Patrol here has left the office temporarily without anyone to handle registration or drivers' licenses and this service will be discontinued until a replacement is made.

Tuohy, who had served as clerk at the office for more than two years, resigned the position this week and hopes to regain his health.

The department of motor vehicles advises that a traveling crew will be assigned to Truckee during the latter part of January to care for the 1953 registration for this area.

Any change in this plan will be announced through the Sierra Sun.

Floriston Bridge Contract Goes To Placer Firm

Work is Expected to Start In Near Future On Span

After being without a bridge across the Truckee River for more than two years, residents of Floriston will be pleased to learn that the final step for replacing the structure was taken at a meeting of the Nevada County board of supervisors Tuesday when they awarded the contract for the span.

The bid of $7,544.50 submitted by DaRosa and Ribal of Auburn was well within the estimate of the engineers and work is expected to be started as soon as the plans are approved by the state engineer's office.

Other bids for installing the bridge, now on the location, ranged upward to $15,795 from the Boss Construction Company and $12,990 from J. B. Allen and Company.

The bridge was purchased some months ago for approximately $8,000, through funds provided by the county and residents of Floriston. The span will replace one washed out in a flood of the Truckee River two years ago. Since that time residents of the village have been without a bridge except for a private pedestrian crossing and have been greatly inconvenienced.

The action of the board Tuesday paves the way for almost immediate construction of the span, although the formal contract will not be signed by Chairman H. G. Loehr until the regular board meeting January 2. It is hoped to have the span completed during the next few weeks, Loehr said.

Veterans Hall Bid

Bids were opened Tuesday for construction of a veterans building at Nevada City, the low bidder being DaRosa and Ribal for $56,110. There were three other bidders.

PUBLIC INVITED TO VIEW QUAINT HOSPITAL SCENE

John Wardman, administrator at the Tahoe Forest Hospital, invites the public to drive by and view the attractive Christmas display arranged by the staff and seen from the highway and driveways.

A huge Santa Claus and his companion, Rudolph, the red-nosed reindeer, adorn the skyline under brilliant flood lights and in attractive color and display while a large lighted Christmas tree decorates the main porch of the hospital.

The view is well worth a trip by the hospital and reflects the interest of officers and staff of the institution.

BUSY SESSION BY LOCAL PTA

Pupils of the Truckee Elementary School will take part in a program at 1:30 this afternoon and will repeat the performance at 7:30 this evening for their parents and friends in the school auditorium. This arrangement was announced at regular meeting of the Parents and Teachers Association Monday evening.

Individual room parties will be given Friday, when the children will have refreshments and small gifts will be exchanged.

Father Ronan Brennan was introduced as the guest speaker by Mrs. Rex Reid, president, and ne spoke understandingly on "Faith, Their Bulwark." The 6th grade was given the award for the largest room attendance and refreshments were served. Teachers of the school will be on the refreshment committee at the meeting January 12.

GIRL SCOUTS TO SING ON STREETS

The local Girl Scout troops composed of twenty girls, will sing carols outside of houses on Christmas Eve between 6 and 8 p.m. They will be accompanied on their tuneful rounds by Mesdames John Rablin, Fred Pedley and Nat Quilici.

Roberts Funeral Will Be Held On Friday Afternoon

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:00 p.m. in the Truckee Colonial Mortuary for Raymond James Roberts, who died at his North San Juan home on Wednesday.

The last rites will be conducted by Summit Lodge No. 54, Knights of Pythias, and Truckee Aerie No. 1124, Fraternal Order of Eagles. A Christian Science service will be read.

Roberts came to Truckee with Mrs. Roberts and their son, Raymond, from Vallejo eight years ago and the family made their home here until recently, when the deceased failed to gain in health and the family moved to the west end of the county.

He was born June 6, 1906, at Palm, California. Beside his wife and son, he is survived by a daughter, Pearl Casalegno, and her two daughters, Susan and Donna, of Norwalk; sisters, Mrs. Henry Toccalini of Truckee, Elsie Forster of Clear Lake Highlands, Aida Schell of Nevada City; brother Frank Roberts of Eureka and his mother, Mrs. Lola Roberts of Rio Dell.

Interment will be in the family plot in the Truckee cemetery. Pall bearers will be Charles Heller, Charles Osburn, Humbert Ciardella, Chester Marquis, Chet Burns and Fosten Wilson.

In Vallejo, Roberts worked in the shipyards and he became well known during the later years of employment here.

Sincere sympathy of the community is extended the bereaved family.

MRS. PINCKNEY DIES AT CAPITAL AFTER ILLNESS

Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock at Sacramento for Mrs. Alice Starr Pinckney, 79, for many years a resident of Truckee, who died last Saturday after an extended illness.

Mrs. Pinckney and her husband, Thomas E. Pinckney, left here about ten years ago following the latter's retirement from the Southern Pacific Company. Both were widely and favorably known here and their many friends will mourn her death.

She was a native of San Francisco.

Surviving beside her husband is a daughter, Mrs. Lyle Smith of Reno, and a son, Jack Joell Pinckney of Oakland. She also leaves a brother, E. F. Raymond of San Carlos. Burial was in the Spanish American War Veterans plot at the Sylvan cemetery.

SAM FOLLETT IS HONORED HERE BY S. P. EMPLOYEES

Twenty-five friends and fellow employees of S. A. Follett gathered at Cozzi's Cafe Friday night to extend best wishes on his retirement from the water department of the Southern Pacific. Railmen from Sacramento, Norden and Truckee formed the party and the honor guest was presented with a gift.

Dan Mowry, water service foreman of Sacramento and F. B. McVay, Norden district foreman, were masters of ceremonies and all departments of the system were represented.

On the day of the party, Follett received a letter from Kenneth Snider, stationed with the Air Force in Morocco, extending best wishes. Snider had read of Follett's retirement in the Sierra Sun.

O'ROURKE SPEAKS AT ROTARY MEET

E. V. O'Rourke, district school superintendent, gave an interesting talk on the athletic program for the local high school at a meeting of the Rotary Club at Brown's Cafe Monday evening. O'Rourke stressed the point that because of the location of the school students compete with Nevada as well as California schools.

The club voted funds to assist in the community Christmas party on Saturday.

Next Monday the club will hold its annual Christmas party at Donner Summit Lodge and the affair will be a ladies night.

Chamber Moves To Assist Snow Removal Project

Committee to Cooperate With Highway Crew In Program

The parking problem during and after snow storms has reached a point where the Truckee Chamber of Commerce is taking definite steps to eliminate a condition which is not only a nuisance but costly.

In the future, through the cooperation of the state division of highways, the chamber members and local parkers, a 24-hour notice will be given by the division and if cars are not removed from the snow banks and the area made available to plows, no plowing will be done. "No Parking" signs will be placed on the south side of the street during storms to prevent congestion and give plows a chance to operate.

Barring a repeat storm or other unexpected emergency, state crews will move in at the end of the 24-hour period to haul the snow away from the business block.

This was proposed at a meeting of the chamber of commerce last Thursday night at Capitol Hall by Kenneth Fuday, division of highways foreman. Fuday pointed out that it was virtually impossible to clear the snow away if cars are to be permitted to park where plows must operate. He added that because of complaints in the past, his crews would be instructed not to move a single vehicle if it is parked off the 20-foot roadway down the center of the street.

Up to Merchants

This left the situation right up to the merchants and others of the town; if they want the vitally important cooperation of the division of highways.

Chamber President Reginald E. Smart named a committee of local business men to work with the division in the snow removal program along the main street. It is the purpose of this group to notify the other business people that cars should be removed for the plows within a given time. There may be rare instances where the car owner cannot be reached and the committee, in that event, was empowered to have these vehicles towed out of the way.

On this committee, V. C. Shattuck is chairman and others are N. F. Dolley, Walter M. Barrett, Nace Firpo, Charles Osburn and Howard Newsham.

Simple Procedure

The program is simple if cooperation is given. Fuday will notify the committee chairman or another member 24 hours in advance of the plowing schedule. The committee will assemble and notify car owners where possible and have one side of the street cleared at a time to permit uninterrupted work by the highway crews.

While this action is expected to correct the situation on the main street for the time being at least, it does not solve a similar problem in other areas of town, where county operated plows face difficulties with parked vehicles. It was indicated at the meeting, attended by 50 local business people, that an ordinance may be drafted for consideration of the board of supervisors in the future to permanently solve the troublesome problem.

First Results Seen

The first results of the program along the main street was noted last Friday when state crews hauled hundreds of truck loads of snow off the street to provide parking areas and safe passage for through vehicles, after nearly 100 cars had been removed, only one of which had to be towed out of the way.

SUN OUT EARLY NEXT TWO WEEKS

With both Christmas and New Year's Day falling on Thursdays, the regular day of publication, the Sierra Sun will be issued on Wednesday for the next two editions. Advertisers and correspondents are asked to take note and plan their copy accordingly.

Those who desire representation in the Sun's Christmas greeting edition are requested to notify the office not later than Saturday at noon, if they have not done so previously.

MAN ARRESTED ON CLAIM FOR WAGES

Floyd Temple, 46, Hirschdale, was arrested Monday for Auburn, Placer County, authorities on a charge of violating the state's labor laws as an employer in lumber work. It was charged that Temple failed to pay wages due employees. He was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Roy Waters. Bail was set at $500 on the first count and $200 on the second.

NORTH TAHOE

by THELMA BURROUGHS

Theresa and Tom Sutton left this week for the winter, spending the holidays in Sacramento with relatives. From there their program is indefinite, which ought also to be interesting.

The open house at the Richard Lavery's was about the most successful event of the approaching holiday season, judging from those seen there greeting their neighbors in the good old holiday fashion.

Carl Bohme slipped on the ice near his home in Kings Beach, breaking or badly injuring his arm and shoulder and will be disabled for some time as a result.

Twenty-two members of the North Tahoe Women's Club attended their annual Christmas party, which was held this year in The Burroughs lounge. Decoration was done by Mrs. Enola De Gregorio, who wove the spirit of the season right into those greens and cones so beautifully arranged for the enjoyment of all. Minnie Wagner and Nina Sorensen had charge of the foods, doing a fine job. Gifts were exchanged. By the way, those on the mopping up detail carried through to perfection too. Thanks to all of you who participated.

Mrs. Bonnie Barnett left last Tuesday for Atlanta, Georgia, where she will spend Christmas with relatives. Bonnie expects to be in Georgia and Alabama the rest of the winter.

Mrs. Bartow Barnett left the Tahoe Forest Hospital at Truckee late last week, following an emergency appendectomy, for Oakland to convalesce in the care of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. K. L. Tattersall.

The county supervisors Tuesday increased the salary for Judge-elect Harry Charrison of Kings Beach from $250 to $300 monthly. Charrison takes over the combined jurisdiction of the former Kings Beach and Tahoe City justice courts next month. Charrison asked for the raise on the ground that his new job makes it necessary for him to hold court in two localities, Tahoe City and Kings Beach, throughout the year.

MOBILE GIFT SHOPS IN COMBAT ZONE FOR G. I. SHOPPERS

The Army introduced a new Christmas shopping service to American soldiers in Korea this year.

Known as "Operation Santa," ten mobile post exchanges toured the war zone so combat men could buy gifts for the folks back home without crawling out of their foxholes or bunkers.

Soldiers selected more than 40 thousand Christmas gifts, ranging from 60-cent earrings to sets of silverware priced at $199.

Soldier-shoppers filled out order blanks for the items they selected. These then were rushed to the post exchange mail order section in Yokohama, Japan, where 30 Department of Army civilians and 70 Japanese helped wrap, address and mail the gifts.

Tahoe Topics

by JEANNETTE MITCHELL

With a forecast of more rain today (Monday) for this area, see our present snow pack diminishing. Our last day of rain lowered the snow pack some two to three feet and though we had two days of some very unusual "bay area type" for, we cheerfully note that both our state and county snow removal equipment have been zealously giving us perfectly conditioned roads and streets. Discontent did raise its ugly head but upon very recent personal investigation I find everyone is more than happy from Bliss Park to Tahoe City and even find that though some service was slow in coming, the county plow has been more than doing its "duty." For better service from the county it would be wise if everyone, when they hear the plow in operation near their homes, get out and move their cars or trucks and dig their own driveways out sufficiently to get all obstructions off the thoroughfare. This alone would facilitate easier and more efficient operation for both the county and state equipment and crews, and help to give the service we, the citizens, demand.

Decorating Tahoe City's large Christmas tree was accomplished this week, thanks to the donation of time and labor from the Sierra Pacific Power Company to rewire and string new lights for the tree. The Tahoe Public Utility District "foots" the power bill while all Tahoeites and visitors are recipients of the pleasure and inspiration of this great spectacle, for this tree is known all over the United States as one of—if not the—"largest living decorated Christmas tree." Traveling down the Truckee River, out of the darkness, like a dream of New Hope, comes to the view of all passers the beautiful outdoor Christmas tree, decorated by the Gerry Waters of Deer Park Lodge. Other folks are planning and executing miscellaneous outdoor decor of beauty for their homes and businesses so Tahoe is undoubtedly nurturing the idea of her very own Christmas Tree Lane.

As we humans shuffle along on this mortal coil outdoors we can view other creatures such as the delightful little tamarack squirrel scampering and playing, gathering their hord of holiday nuts thrown out for them, repaying the giver with an occasional tap at our window pane and little brown eyes filled with gratification—and anticipation. Chicadees, nut hatches and douna tree birds in minute contrast to the bold and sassy jays, all who have moved into the fare of the feeding stations. Huge flocks of the varied thrush are seen no more after their rabid attack on the pine cones for the delicacies held therein. A few deer trails are discernable criss-crossed by the snowshoe rabbit. So, as the "Miracle of Christmas" again draws near, we give praise unto our hearts "that a Child was born" and renew our prayer for "Peace on Earth, Good Will to all Men!"

Some of our journeying neighbors have come home again, among them Mr. and Mrs. A. Snyder of Lake Forest from their sojourn in Roseburg and Eugene, Oregon, and the bay area. Glad to get back after having to purchase rain gear for that country. Judge C. W. Vernon and his wife, Ethel, are back and we hear that Mrs. Vernon was very ill while away, coming close to double pneumonia, spending the greater part of her vacation in bed but with the recuperative powers of dear old Tahoe, she is now rapidly regaining her strength. Word from some of our still wandering Tahoeites found the Howard Guths of Tahoe Lodge back in Philadelphia, Pa., not particularly enjoying the cold and fog but looking forward to their visit with Mrs. Guth's daughter in Columbus, Ohio. Later word from the Guths notes their arrival at Columbus December 9 and greeting their newly arrived grand son December 11. Howard boasts of sail fishing off Florida and will come home with some trophy fish, a six foot seven inch sail fish and a two foot 11 inch dolphin.

Hear that the wandering A. M. (Joe) Henrys and Floyd Carnells have a rendezvous to meet in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Carnell has been enjoying many dinners and teas and functions of the American Federated Women's Clubs back there, of which the Women's Club of Tahoe is an intregal part. Floyd and his wife have enjoyed their visit with his folks back in Kaiser,. Virginia Understand that Gus Gelerit has started his trek back to pick up his wife Grace, who was the Floyd Carnells' traveling companion as far as Missouri, where she stopped off to visit relatives. Bea and Ralph Sturgis are back but just for a little while. Hear they have extensive plans for a beautiful Hawaiian trip in the near future. Expected back momentarily are the John Flaggs, who "tripped" down Santa Barbara way with daughter, Shirley, to attend a gala Christmas party.

The Enrico Gianninis, son Trent and daughter Jan, returned from a pleasant weekend at Sacramento, where they attended the annual Golden State Christmas party at the Lani in buffet dinner style, accentuated the following morning when they joined old friends at breakfast at the El Rancho. Mrs. Giannini has been accomplishing the stupendous task of cooking and serving on the daily average about 40 children at the Tahoe Lake elementary school.

Our friends, Capt. John and Gerda Kvistberg, are hopefully anticipating the arrival of their grandson, Jimmie Easton, and his family for the Christmas holiday. The Phil Geiers of Tahoe Park are also looking forward to the holiday visit of their daughter, Mrs. Charles Bailey, and hubby, and their granddaughter, Susan, of Arcadia. Mrs. Maris Franz of Los Angeles arrived on Monday's bus to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Stein Nielsen. Mrs. Franz has rented out her lovely little home in Tahoe Park to the Jim Brehlers.

Mrs. Phil Geier tells me they had a "return engagement" by feting the W. M. Balls and two sons, Wesley and Douglas, the other night for dinner. The Balls were thankful they did not have trouble on Dollar Hill and are still contemplating the pleansantries of the evening spent at the Geiers. Martha and Donald Snyder of Lake Forest are reportedly in Sacramento on business and returning promptly.

I see where the PTA Doll is daily having more enviable pieces added to her wardrobe so she will not be without suitable attire for any occasion. Oh! happy little mother who will love and cherish that darling doll. To add still further to the Christmas thrills for our young folks will be the advent of dear old Santa to give out great gifts to all good little boys and girls under the bright Tahoe City Christmas tree Friday night, December 19. The picture of Dicken's Christmas Carol, featuring old man Scrooge, will be shown outdoors, weather permitting. We also hope flash pictures will be taken to be shown over the U. S.

Furthering Christmas Cheer afar are the "Operations Cookies" boxes that Mrs. Louise Geier of the Tahoe Women's Club sponsored to help the Reno AWVS project. Mrs. Geier very happily reports 20 of the 23 boxes distributed were filled and picked up in time for the airlift from Hubbard Field at Reno. May it extend our warm hearted handshake to those boys unable to be home for the joys of Christmas.

Received a phone call from Mrs. Sarah Hunter of Bacchi's Inn at Lake Forest who is wintering in Lodi and she misses they one and all. Anyone going through Lodi will find Sarah meeting all comers with her usual good cooking at the El Charro dining room.

Our friend, Loren Holmwood, left this week for his trip to the bay area and thence down to his "other home" at Laguna Beach. He took a very reluctant leave and hopes spring will come soon so he may return and continue his project at the bridge below Tahoe City. I am such that, upon completion, this project will benefit all by the added beauty and interest conjured in his mind. He is a man of great artistic ability and has the talent to portray the beauty he sees, lives and feels into more material stuff. Kathleen Starratt has been doing a land office mail order business with her holiday greens from Tahoe, sent to many folks whose hearts are up here but who must sojourn the winter months below. Also am reminded that belated birthday best wishes should be sent Kay's mom, Mrs. Anne Anderson. Miss Carol Wilson of Lake Forest has been enrolled for classic piano instruction under Miss Edna Categan of Brockway.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Helm have been mighty busy these past days shipping off countless Christmas trees, well wrapped, like folded flowers, only to open again in some far clime and bring added joy and beauty to the recipients.

The weekly meeting of the Lake Tahoe Ski Club and the first one of the season was held last Friday night at the Community Center building, with around 30 attending. It is hoped that future meetings will be attended with more members and friends, for a good

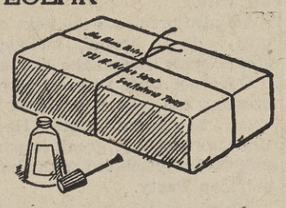
A Few Tips on Mailing Christmas Packages

First of all, we want to wish you and your family a very Merry Christmas!



A milk carton makes handy mailing container for cookies. Cut top of milk carton on three sides. Pack cookies together with a few marshmallows which act as humidors to retain moisture, keep cookies fresh longer. When filled, seal top of milk carton with tape.

Wet cord before wrapping packages for mailing. As it dries, cord shrinks, making tighter, safer package. Names and addresses on packages will remain legible if you give them a coat of clear nail polish, before sending. Thanks very much for your patronage of our local business during this past year. And Happy 1953!

"Boys' Town of the West" Marks Third Anniversary

A chapel in the Valley of the Moon was the setting early this month when 63 grateful youngsters, of many races and creeds, gathered to thank God for the kindness of Californians.

The youngsters all are boys, residents of "the Boys' Town of the West," Hanna Boys' Center near Sonoma. The chapel ceremonies on December 4 marked the third anniversary of the opening of the attractive little "town" for neglected lads.

Boys' Center's young citizens have one important thing in common: they had no home until they came to the Sonoma haven for underprivileged lads. They all were bewildered little boys whose early lives had been marred by broken homes, poverty, parental neglect and even by complete abandonment.

The building of Boys' Center represented a case of good arising from evil. In 1946, a group of California labor, business and professional men decided to do something about the rapidly rising number of youngsters from homes being broken by a war-spawned moral letdown and other factors. They organized an appeal to the state's residents for a home to provide care and affection and direction for some of these children without regard to race or creed. More than 50,000 warm-hearted Californians responded and the result is the modern and attractively homelike Boys' Center.

Since the first group of 24 lads came to Boys' Center on December 4, 1949, the population has increased more than 160 per cent, and applications for admission have poured in by the hundreds from all of the western states. Today the home is full to capacity and boys must be turned away for lack of living space.

Boys' Center is supported principally by voluntary contributions from Californians. Rev. William L. O'Connor, director of the home and a recent visited to Truckee, says that construction of another desperately needed cottage-type dormitory must be postponed until more persons join those who now send small donations to Boys' Center annually. "If," he says, "everyone who has a child or who has ever had sympathy for an orphan child, would set aside a dollar or so a year for Boys' Center, we could double our population tomorrow."

REV. WILLIAM L. O'CONNOR
Hanna Boys' Center

He asked the Sierra Sun & Republican to express the boys' appreciation to Truckee, Tahoe and Donner area residents who have helped the project.

To most of the lads who come to Boys' Center, the words "real home" mean little, since most of them never have known such a home. To fill this tragic void in the boys' lives, the staff members concentrate upon making Boys' Center as homelike as possible. Regimentation is avoided and newcomers soon learn that they are regarded as individual personalities, whose problems and ideas and ambitions will be respected.

The boys' daily routine conforms as closely as possible to that of the average boy in any normal home. He learns moral and spiritual values; he has his academic and vocation training; he has his work to do each day and he has the time for recreation so necessary to the growth of every normal boy.

The boys, who are between 11 and 15 upon admission, receive many ordinary benefits which have been foreign to them; things which most children take for granted. These are things like a warm, clean bed and plenty of carefully planned, well balanced meals. From the time the alarm clock sounds in the morning until "lights out" at night, the boys' day is a continuous process of growth and development toward productive citizenship — morally, mentally and physically.

Boys can be kept at the home until they complete the second year of high school. After that, they go wherever it is most likely that their growth will continue, often to foster homes. Other "graduates" are serving in the armed forces. The boys were saddened recently by the news that a former Boys' Center youth had died of wounds suffered in Korea.

Administration of the home is provided by a group of 40 leaders in the fields of business, labor and the professions, who volunteer their time and talents to insure its continued existence and expansion. Present chairman of this board of directors is Municipal Judge Joseph A. Murphy of Oakland.

Today, these directors believe that the first three years have been good years, and have demonstrated that Boys' Center can make a dozen good citizens for the cost of just one criminal.

As for the youngsters: they KNOW they have been good years — the best years of their young lives.

CHANGES COMING, SENATOR TELLS STATE'S ELECTORS

SACRAMENTO —(C. N. S.)— U.S. Senator William F. Knowland predicted some changes would be made in the nation's presidential electoral system when he addressed the California Electoral College just before it cast ballots for president and vice president.

Calling the meeting of Republican leaders who made up this year's state electoral college on Monday "an historic occasion," Knowland said he believed Congress before the next presidential election would alter the system, possibly to one in which electoral votes of each state would be cast in proportion to the state's popular vote.

He also predicted the next electoral college would include 49 states, with Hawaii the 49th state.

Governor Earl Warren, also addressing the college, declared that, after 24 years since Herbert Hoover's election, great responsibility had been placed with the Republican Party.

"Fortunately, we have elected a great man," he said.

He asked all Americans to dismiss partisanship and give support to General Eisenhower's leadership.

"I will do everything I can do to support the hand of General Dwight D. Eisenhower as President of the United States," said Warren, a man whose political future under a national Republican administration has not been made clear.

Knowland, who campaigned with Eisenhower through some 30 states, stated the President-elect's victory was "not a political victory."

"Eisenhower will not look upon himself as a Republican president," the senator added, declaring that the new president would approach the problems of Korea, the cold war in Europe, high taxes, the national debt and all problems in the interests of all the people.

REPRESENTATIVE DUE HERE NEXT WEEK ON SOCIAL SECURITY

According to William Royle, manager of the Reno field office of the Social Security Administration, between next January 1 and March 15 some five million business men and women will place themselves on record as being insured under the federal social security program.

This will be done in connection with the filing of their 1952 income tax return. For the second time since self-employed people became covered by social security, Schedule C of the income tax return will be used to report net income from self employment for old age and survivors insurance.

With the filing of the income tax return for 1952, those who were self-employed in 1951 and 1952 will acquire insurance protection for their families in event of death. Additional work will be needed to qualify an individual for retirement benefits, however, unless he was born before July 1, 1890.

Since future benefits are based on the annual reports of self-employment income, it is important that the tax return be correct and complete. It should include the individual's name, social security number, a clear description of the nature of the business and the amount of net income derived. Rentals, stock dividends, interest on bonds and capital gains are generally not to be included.

If the self-employed person is in one of the professions excluded in social security (medicine, law, etc.), the net income from the profession is not reported. However, if he has income from another business, the non-professional income should be reported.

Royle concluded by saying a field representative will be at the Truckee Public Utility office on December 22 at 10:15 a.m. to serve those desiring further information or having other business to transact in connection with the social security program.

FISH, GAME BOARD TO SET RULES AT TWO SESSIONS

California's 1953 angling and hunting regulations will get a thorough going over before the five-man fish and game commission when it meets for regulatory powers sessions in Los Angeles January 2 and San Francisco January 30.

Wm. J. Harp, assistant to the commission, has asked California sportsmen to make their recommendations known to the commissioners before the first January meeting. Post cards, letters, resolutions, petitions or telegrams are acceptable, he said.

Among the major changes from the 1952 regulations is a proposal of the department of fish and game that a two-day either-sex deer hunting period be allowed at the end of the regular deer season in certain coastal areas. Commissioners will get the proposal following a series of five January hearings in the area affected.

LOGGERS WILL RETURN TO SAN FRANCISCO

The Pacific Logging Congress, which met 2,000 strong in San Francisco last month, has announced the meeting was so successful that the congress will return in 1956 and thereafter will meet in San Francisco every four years.

SIERRA RESORTS HOPE FOR BIG WINTER SEASON

SAN FRANCISCO— More than a million dollars has been invested by operators of California's winter sports resorts, with a major share of new developments made in northern California, this year.

J. Stanley Mullin, Los Angeles attorney and past president of the Far West Ski Association, reported this during the recent 25th annual meeting of the California State Chamber of Commerce here.

Among developments cited by Mullin were Yosemite's 1,000 foot T-bar lift, Dodge Ridge's Class C jumping hill, modification on Squaw Valley's double chair lift, a proposed double chair lift at Edelweiss on Highway 50 and Sugar Bowl's new double chair lift and aerial tramway from Highway 40 to the lodge, now nearing completion.

Mullins pointed out the desirability of improved reporting on road conditions to the public and the need to direct winter sports promotional advertising toward those who, by necessity or choice, take their vacations during the winter season.

Bear Hunting Popularity Increases Annually

Bear hunting — one of the most rugged of California's outdoor sports and the lasto of the big game on this year's sportsman's calendar — is reaching its seasonal peak in the Sierra foothills and in he northwestern forests.

The department of fish and game reports that more than 5,000 of the state's black bears will be taken this year by enterprising hunters. The sport is becoming more popular each year, it is revealed by an annual post card survey conducted by the agency.

One-half hour after sunset, December 31, marks the close of the 1952 hunting season. Bag limit is two bears per season.

Hunting is at its best now, the department advises, with the bears in good flesh and pelts in prime condition.

The Amur River in the USSR is approximately 2900 miles long.

Lions Club Sends Tools To Philippine Islands

SAN FRANCISCO— Farmers of northern California have donated 25 truckloads of agricultural equipment to their counterparts in the Philippines, it was reported this week. The convoy, second installment of a program sponsored by the Lions Club here, was preceded last week by four trucks, loaded with almost 70 tons of farm tools, contributed by Central Valley farmers.

time can be had by all and the ski club does much in furthering outside skiers' interest in our community but they do need the cooperation of all of you! Let's get together to make this the "best ever." We have the people to put it over.

On our sick list I find our little neighbor, Mrs. W. A. Simmonds, is improving daily and hopes to be home from the Tahoe Forest Hospital very soon. Carl Bechdolt Sr. improves daily, proving you just can't keep a good man down long.

Houseguests of the Imon Mitchells over the weekend were the William Hommerbockers and two daughters, Darcus and Diane, of Marysville, the girls enjoying a hearty romp in the snow with their little cousin, Dale Mitchell. The Mitchells answer the many inquiries about Mitchell's father, who remains in very serious condition in the Yuba City hospital.

And that, my friends, draws to a close this missive to you; trusting it finds you and those dear to you well and happy and enjoying every promise the coming Christmas tide bestows upon us. A very Happy Christmas to you, one and all.

AMERICAN SOLDIERS EVERYWHERE TO GET HOLIDAY FEAST

The Army is ready to talk turkey to its soldiers on Christmas.

In order that its fighting men the world over may sit down to a traditional American Christmas Day dinner, the Army for months has been engaged in a gigantic "turkey trot" to bring the birds to the soldier's holiday table wherever it is set.

Turkey by the ton and trimmings by the truckload now are in Army overseas larders to lade the soldier's Christmas dinner table.

In Korea, combat troops will get complete hot meals transported to the front lines in insulated food containers or will be served from mobile field kitchens operating in forward areas.

The Army's master menu for Christmas may not range from soup to nuts — but it does contain just about everything but the soup, for which there likely would be no room anyway.

Within the United States, soldiers will sit down to this meal:

Chilled Fruit Cup or Crabmeat Cocktail
Roast Turkey
Sage Dressing - Giblet Gravy
Cranberry Sauce
Mashed Potatoes
Candied Sweet Potatoes
Buttered Green Beans
Scalloped Corn
Waldorf Salad - Olives
Sweet Pickles - Carrot Sticks
Hot Rolls
Butter or Oleomargarine
Mincemeat Pie with Ice Cream
Fruit Cake - Assorted Fruits
Assorted Candies
Mixed Nuts - Dates - Coffee

In overseas areas, the fare will be substantially the same—turkey will be the main course but the trimmings may vary with the theater.

For the holidays feasts of soldiers in the Pacific area, the San Francisco Port of Embarkation this year shipped:

2,518,986 pounds of turkey
503,875 pounds of candy
438,213 pounds of nuts
223,224 pounds of cranberry sauce
338,284 pounds of mincemeat
318,397 pounds of fruit cake.

GERMANY, AMERICA TRADE CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR ORPHANS

Tons of goodwill gifts are being exchanged this Christmas between Germany and the United States for orphans of the two countries.

The German toy and Christmas decoration industry donated ten tons of toys — more than 10,000 items — from their shops, while the U. S. Quartermaster Association sent tons of food and clothing to German orphans.

This is the first time German manufacturers have participated in such a project. The Quartermaster Association, however, has sent food and clothing to German orphans every Christmas for the past four years.

The Quartermaster Association is an organization of officers of the U. S. Army Quartermaster Corps and prominent American civilians who exchange ideas on new developments in the field of procurement and supply.

The coats, shoes, canned milk, fruits and vegetables, and thousands of other American products sent to Germany were donated by Quartermaster Association members, most of whom are manufacturers.

This organization will distribute the German-made dolls, bucking broncos, monkeys and other toys to Protestant, Catholic and Jewish orphanages throughout this country while the German industry association will handle distribution in that country.

TAHOE CITY— A. E. Frodenberg, official meteorologist here, recorded 21 inches of new snow between December 8 and December 15, with 1.85 inches precipitation being added in that period. Snow depth at 8 a.m. Monday was measured at 30 inches. The level of Lake Tahoe was 6227.69 feet above sea level with 11 gates open.

Frodenberg noted the following daily high and low temperatures for the period:

Dec. 8th: 31, 25; 9th: 37, 21; 10th: 39, 23; 11th: 42, 28; 12th: 40, 24; 13th: 38, 22; 14th: 35, 21; 15th: low, 28.

Shortest Christmas?

Santa Claus will have plenty of natural camouflage for his deliveries to some U. S. soldiers. Weathermen in Iceland predict only four hours of sunlight for Christmas, from 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

In Capital City—
Mr. and Mrs. J. T. White of Tahoma are at their Sacramento place for the winter months.

Mains Go South—
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Main of Tahoe City have gone to South Laguna Beach until early spring.

TEAM TAKES LOSSES; PREPARES TO PLAY INDIANS HERE SATD'Y

The Tahoe-Truckee High School Wolverines won one and lost three basketball games over the weekend.

The lone win came when the C squad dumped the Portola C's by a final score of 21 to 19. The locals led all the way with Bob Sanford and Mike Soltau leading the Wolverine attack.

In the other two games, played Friday night at Portola, the B's were dropped by the Portola B's 44 to 29 while their A's defeated the Wolverine A team 41 to 16. Forward Smith of Portola accounted for 18 points while the losers' high pointer was Eugene Carrillo with seven for the Bees.

The A squad from Tahoe-Truckee was outclassed against the tight zone defense and sharp shooting of the Portola Varsity. Six members of the Wolverine A squad shared scoring honors with two points each.

A return game at Truckee is planned for a later date.

Rocked by Reno

On Saturday night, December 13 the A squad traveled to Reno and dropped their second game of the weekend to an agressive Reno Junior Varsity quintet by a 59 to 22 score. The Wolverines, once again, lacked the fight and skill to stop a fast and clever Reno squad. With Center Bob Tonini going to the side lines on fouls in the second quarter, the locals were not able to control the ball and move it into scoring territory against the hard-pressing Reno defense.

Les Lazzari and Joe Copeland each accounted for five points to lead the Wolverines while Mardias and Valentine headed the Reno scorers with nine points each.

See-Saw Battle

Tuesday, December 16, the Tahoe-Truckee A and B teams traveled to Nevada City to play the Nevada Union Junior Varsities.

High scorer for the Wolverine A's was Ray Dixon with 18 points. The score, by quarters, for the A game was as follows: Tahoe-Truckee led 10-2 in the first, 19-12 at the half, 27-25 in the third but lost 35 to 46.

The B game resulted in a final score of 38 to 26 in favor of Nevada Union. High scorer for the T-'n-T Bees was Dallas Marquis with 14 points. The score by quarters of the B game was as follows: 10-9 at the first, 18-14 half, 30-20 in the third and 38-26 final, with the hosts leading all the way.

The boys who made the trip to Nevada City representing the Wolverines were: A squad: Tonini, Dixon, Jones, Moore, Copeland, Lazzari, Smith and Wagner; B squad: Marquis, Carrillo, McClain, Quam, Port, Van Hooser and Mandeville; Bert Falbaum, manager; James Brehler, coach; George Bergen, principal.

On Friday night, December 19, the A, B and C teams travel to Loyalton for a three-game series. The curtain raising C game starts at 6:30 p.m.

Indians Are Coming

Saturday night, the Wolverines will play the A and B squads from the Stewart Indian School of Nevada on the local court. A large turn-out is expected as this will be one of the teams the Wolverines will meet next year as a member of the Western Nevada Conference. Game time is 7:00 p.m.

My Place in the Sun

by DOUG BARRETT

'Tis the season.....and how could anyone live in Truckee and not know it.....after all the work the men from the 20-30 Club did last Sunday and before to set up the trees and lights.....and while the lads deserve the major share of credit for the Christmasy appearance of the burg.....they got great assists from the Truckee Chamber of Commerce (for lights).....the Truckee Public Utility District and the Southern Pacific RR (for power) and others.....but getting back, the 20-30 boys were the sparks and drive for the community decorations.....which are again topped by the giant living Christmas tree on the hill across the river .....next to Crandall's Hill Top Lodge.....and the spirit of the season is enhanced by the pealing of carols and anthems along the main stem.....originating in the speaker system atop the marquee at Vern Shattuck's Donner Theater.....All gift shopping now isn't necessarily for Christmas.....found Mrs. Kenny Foster and son in Loynd's picking out an anniversary gift for Ken.....with the Fosters marking December 16 as their wedding date.....and later in came Billy Thornton to pick out a birthday gift for his mother, Mrs. Mel Thornton.....who celebrates December 15.....There were red and green letter days in Truckee this week.....a license with a green "A" and 6 indicated Assemblyman Francis Lindsay was in town for a few minutes.....en route home from a junket to Utah.....while a red "S" with a 7 getting gas proclaimed the presence of Senator Harold "Bizz" Johnson from Roseville.....here a bit longer on matters of interest to this area on Tuesday.....My way home at night is pleasantly lighted by the outdoor living Christmas tree which graces the yard of the N. S. McCrary home next to the Cottage Hotel.....Jack Wolert holding forth on bull fights in Mexico.....after dinner at Sarge's.....with amused and interested auditors his wife, Mary, the Leo Smiseks, the Bill Smiseks and Louise Wilkie.....their disastrous fire didn't slow the Wolerts up much.....and they left this week on the first leg of their projected second winter vacation..... south of the border.....with Jack feeling better but still taking it easier than he likes.....

SAN FRANCISCO WILL MARK YULETIDE IN TRADITIONAL STYLE

SAN FRANCISCO— "Christmas Eve in San Francisco," the city's seventh annual tribute to the nation, will be broadcast from Union Square between 7 and 7:30 p.m. December 24 over the CBS network, the Down Town Association announced this week. A musical program featuring Dorothy Warenskjold and a Christmas chorus and orchestra will be presented.

The Children's Theatre Association will sponsor the San Francisco ballet in its fourth consecutive presentation of Tschaikowsky's Chrismas ballet, "The Nutcracker," at 2 p.m. on Sunday, December 21 at the Opera House. The following Sunday, December 28, the Pacific Opera Company will sponsor a gala holiday performance of Humperdink's fairy opera, "Hanel and Gretel," in English, also at the Opera House at 2 p.m.

San Francisco's commemoration of the birthdate of John McLaren on Saturday, December 20, will be marked by turning on Christmas lights in Union Square and Golden Gate Park, as well as other outdoor decorations installed by the Recreation-Park Department. McLaren, "Father of Golden Gate Park," died in 1943 at the age of ninety-six.

Four huge trees will be installed in Union Square and two on either side of the Main Drive in Golden Gate Park at Stanyan Street.

A new presentation in Golden Gate Park this year will be choral group singing in the Band Concourse on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings from 7:15 to 8:45 p.m.

The traditional Shepherd Pageant at Lindley Meadow along the Main Drive in the Park opposite 32nd Avenue will begin on December 20 this year and continue through December 31 from 4 to 11 p.m.
